Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-18, drawn to an implantable or insertable medical device, classified in Class 424, subclasses 422+.

II. Claims 19-27, drawn to a method of forming the claimed implantable or insertable medical device, classified in Class 424, subclass 422+.

III. Claims 28, drawn to methods to provide an increase in the cumulative release of a therapeutic agent from a medical device, Class 427, subclass 1+.

IV. Claim 29, drawn to methods of identifying an implantable or insertable medical device for which increased release is desired, classified in Class 427, subclass 1+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other, for the following reasons:

The inventions are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, Groups II-IV are drawn to distinct methods, i.e., a method of preparation, a method for providing increased release of a therapeutic agent and a method of identification. The medical device of instant claim 1 may be prepared by various methods depending on the organ system to which the device is intended.

The Groups have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and their recognized, divergent subject matter. The searches required for each Group are not co-extensive resulting in an undue burden to the Examiner. Each Group is capable of supporting a separate patent. Thus restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Further, claims 14-18 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: distinct polymeric agents. Claim 7 is generic to the following patentably distinct species: a catheter, a guide wire, a balloon, a filter, a stent, a stent graft, a vascular graft, a vascular patch and a shunt. In each case, the species are independent or distinct because a prior art reference anticipating claim 1 with respect to one species would not render the claim obvious under 35 U.S.C. 103 with respect to another species. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, Applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that to be complete, the reply to this requirement must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1614

Where the Examiner has required restriction between product and process claims and Applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after Final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the Examiner before the patent issues withdraws the restriction requirement. See MPEP § 804.01.

A telephone call to the attorney is not required where: 1) the restriction requirement is complex; 2) the application is being prosecuted pro se; or, 3) the Examiner knows from past experience that a telephone election will not be made. See MPEP 812.01.
